15. DESCRIPTION OF WANTED PERSON OR MESSAGE

Effective Sunday, July 13, 2008, the Chief of Police will implement a four (4) day/ten (10) hour work week for members detailed to the Patrol Support Team Initiative (PSTI). Members working PSTI will have Sunday, Monday and Tuesday as days off. During deployment weeks that contain a recognized holiday that falls on a Monday, members will revert back to an eight (8) hour tour of duty for that week with Sunday and Tuesday as days off and Monday as an Authorized Holiday. During weeks where a recognized holiday does not fall on a Monday, members will also have an (8) hour tour of duty but will have Sunday and Monday as days off and the recognized holiday.

Members will report for roll call at the Fifth District located at 1805 Bladensburg Road, N.E. The tour of duty will be 1730 – 0400 hours. Members assigned to the Internal Affairs Bureau shall continue to report to the Third District Sub-Station. The tour of duty will be 1730 – 0400 hours.

PSTI members assigned to Group A who were originally scheduled to report for PSTI during the week of July 6th through July 12th, 2008, will be deferred to the following week of July 13th through 19th, 2008. Accordingly, there will be no PSTI during the week of July 6th, 2008. As a result of the Group A deferment, all PSTI members shall take particular note of the new PSTI dates for Groups A through F on the attached schedule.

PSTI members shall familiarize themselves with the guidelines published in Teletype 05-040-08 and 05-041-08 dated May 13, 2008 governing the Patrol Support Team Initiative. All managers are responsible for ensuring that affected members are notified of this change and schedules are posted accordingly.
