Members are notified of the following policy of the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) – At any time the District of Columbia Department of Fire & Emergency Medical Services (FEMS) transports a patient under arrest and/or in the custody of the MPD, a sworn full-duty member shall accompany, and maintain direct control of the patient, most often in the rear of the EMS transport unit. Any deviation of this policy shall only take place under extraordinary circumstances. Additionally, any deviation of this policy shall require prior approval from the element Watch Commander. The Watch Commander who authorizes a departure from policy will be responsible for documenting the circumstances on his/her Watch Commander Report. This policy shall remain in effect until incorporated in the appropriate directives or rescinded. This policy does not change the requirement that MPD members must follow behind FEMS transports that contain shooting victims, who are not in the custody of the Department.
